Library Renovation

Drum roll please! Lake Erie College is happy to announce that a $1.9 million renovation of the James F. Lincoln Library will begin in May 2015. The extensive renovation aims to address the need for a modern study area by infusing technology into the library and by providing opportunities for digital learning and active collaboration. For more information or to view the floor plans for the renovation, visit our website.

Panel Event: Art Interprets Alzheimer’s

The second of two panel events accompanying the Art Interprets Alzheimer’s exhibit will take place Wednesday, March 11 from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the R.K. Smith Gallery in Royce Hall for the Fine and Performing Arts. The panel is directed toward community members and will feature a variety of experts on the topic. It should be of great interest to everyone, and we hope to see you there! Visit our website for more information.

Comedy Night with Sean Lynch

Looking for a laugh? Comedian Sean Lynch will perform stand-up on campus on Thursday, March 19. Lynch is a professional comedian, co-creator of Celebrity Deathmatch, a writer for other MTV shows and an award-winning indie filmmaker. The event will take place at 7:30 p.m. in the C.K. Ricek Theatre in Royce Hall for the Fine and Performing Arts. Lynch will also be visiting some fine arts classes while he is on campus, and his performance will be followed by a podcast recording. For more information on the event, contact Dr. Judy Stedler.

Community Health and Wellness Fair

It’s time to get healthy! The Joseph G. Weber Physician Assistant Student Society is collaborating with the Painesville Rec Department and the Lake Health Wellness Institute to present a Community Health and Wellness Fair. The fair will take place Sunday, March 15 from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Harvey High School. The free event includes health screenings and educational booths as well as a presentation from former football linemen James Cotton, karate demonstrations and a children’s Mini Olympics. For more information, visit our website or contact Teresa Loffredo.

Kappa Sigma Pancake Breakfast

Who wants some pancakes? Mark your calendars for Kappa Sigma’s third annual Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, March 21. The event will run from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the First Church of Christ in Painesville and will include a meal of pancakes and sausage, a Chinese auction and a 50/50 raffle. As part of the fraternity’s “A Greater Cause” initiative, proceeds from the event will benefit the Fisher House Foundation, an organization that works to support military heroes and their families. Advance tickets ($7 for adults and $5 for seniors and LEC students) are available from any Kappa Sigma member or by contacting the chapter at Kappasigachi@lec.edu. Tickets will also be sold March 16-20 from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Student Center. Tickets at the door will be $8 for adults. For more information, contact Tyler Silsby, philanthropy and public relations chairman of the LEC Kappa Sigma chapter.
